EIDCO CONSTRUCTION NAMES DAVID BLATT PURCHASING MANAGER

New Addition to Growing Team Will Be Responsible For Purchasing Management

CHICAGO, Ill. (May 2, 2011) – Eidco Construction, one of the fastest growing general contractor companies in the United States, today announced that the firm has hired David Blatt to serve as purchasing manager.

Blatt, who has close to three decades of work experience as an educator, manager in both healthcare and small business, and as a financial control officer for local government, will be responsible for purchasing management, sourcing key materials for projects.

“We are thrilled to have David join our team of bright and talented professionals, which is growing at a rapid rate,” said Chez Eider, CEO of Eidco Construction. “As a seasoned financial control officer and procurement specialist, David will fill a niche at Eidco, helping us to better serve our clients by optimizing our supply chain and building in greater cost efficiencies.”

Prior to joining Eidco, Blatt served as a Financial Control Officer at the Cook County Department of Revenue. He has also served as Support Services Director at Loretto Hospital, and has held similar positions at several other Chicagoland hospitals.

“With Eidco quickly establishing itself as one of the nation’s premier full-service construction firms, I’m extremely excited to join the staff and eager to help drive further growth,” Blatt said. “I believe my unique skill set will aid Eidco in delivering the highest value to their clients.”

Blatt holds a Graduate Degree from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill., and a Bachelor Degree from Roosevelt University in Chicago, Ill.
