EIDCO CONSTRUCTION NAMES FRANK SCHAEFGES FIELD CONSTRUCTION PROJECT MANAGER

Industry Veteran Will Oversee Illinois–Area Projects

CHICAGO, Ill. (March 15, 2011) – Eidco Construction, one of the fastest growing commercial construction management companies in the United States, today announced that the firm has hired Frank Schaeftges to serve as field construction project manager.

Schaeftges, who specializes in remodeling and tenant improvement projects, has vast experience in the construction of long-term healthcare facilities, specifically addressing federal life safety code deficiencies associated with fire sprinkler and fire alarm systems. In his role with Eidco, Schaeftges will be responsible for overseeing a variety of projects throughout Illinois.

“Frank has an extensive career serving in numerous capacities for a wide variety of projects, and we believe he is a great fit for our firm,” said Chez Eider, CEO of Eidco Construction. “He is a well-known specialist in a number of areas that we feel will provide tremendous growth opportunities for Eidco.”

Prior to joining Eidco, Schaeftges served as project manager at Avenue Communities in Tempe, Ariz., where he led the development of a new entity to build luxury multi-million dollar residences. He held similar positions at Incline LLC in Scottsdale, Ariz. and Life Style Builders in Crystal Lake, Ill.

Schaeftges attended McHenry County College in Crystal Lake, Ill. and the University of Illinois in Champaign, Urbana, Ill. He is actively involved with Habitat for Humanity, the U.S. Green Building Council, and the National Fire Protection Association.

“I look forward to working with Eidco to expand its presence in the diverse Illinois market,” Schaeftges said. “Eidco has established a reputation as a leading construction entity with a professional team dedicated to detailed and thorough work.”
