United RX Retains Eidco Construction to Oversee 5,000-Square-Foot Pharmacy Retrofit in Carmel, Ind.

Sr. Project Manager Larry Vivoda Will Lead Firm's Effort to Convert Portion of Former Fitness Center

CARMEL, Ind. (April 25, 2012) – Eidco Construction, one of the fastest growing general contractors in the United States, today announced that the firm has been retained by United RX to serve as general contractor for a 5,000-square-foot retrofit project at 2325 Pointe Parkway in Carmel, Indiana.

United RX — a full-service, independent, long-term-care pharmacy company — has enlisted Eidco to convert a portion of the building, formerly a fitness center, into a state-of-the-art pharmacy facility.

Architectural firm Carson Design worked on the project, which is currently in progress under the direction of Eidco Senior Project Manager Larry Vivoda.

“This retrofit of open warehouse space will provide a cutting-edge company with a modern facility that will meet its expansion needs,” said Chez Eider, CEO of Eidco Construction. “We’re excited to complete this project on time and within budget, as we hope to forge a long-term relationship with United RX, which has demonstrated tremendous growth over the last several years.”

United RX provides services to over 60 facilities consisting of skilled nursing facilities, assisted living communities, youth homes, intermediate care facilities for the developmentally disabled and hospice.
